

MALÖ

Good days start at night

How ever you lie in a Malö, the mattress forms to your body. A superior pocket spring system set into our Patent Pending segment reads your body contours and movements.

Malö has a particularly high spring system, which gives you the feeling of acceptance into the bed.

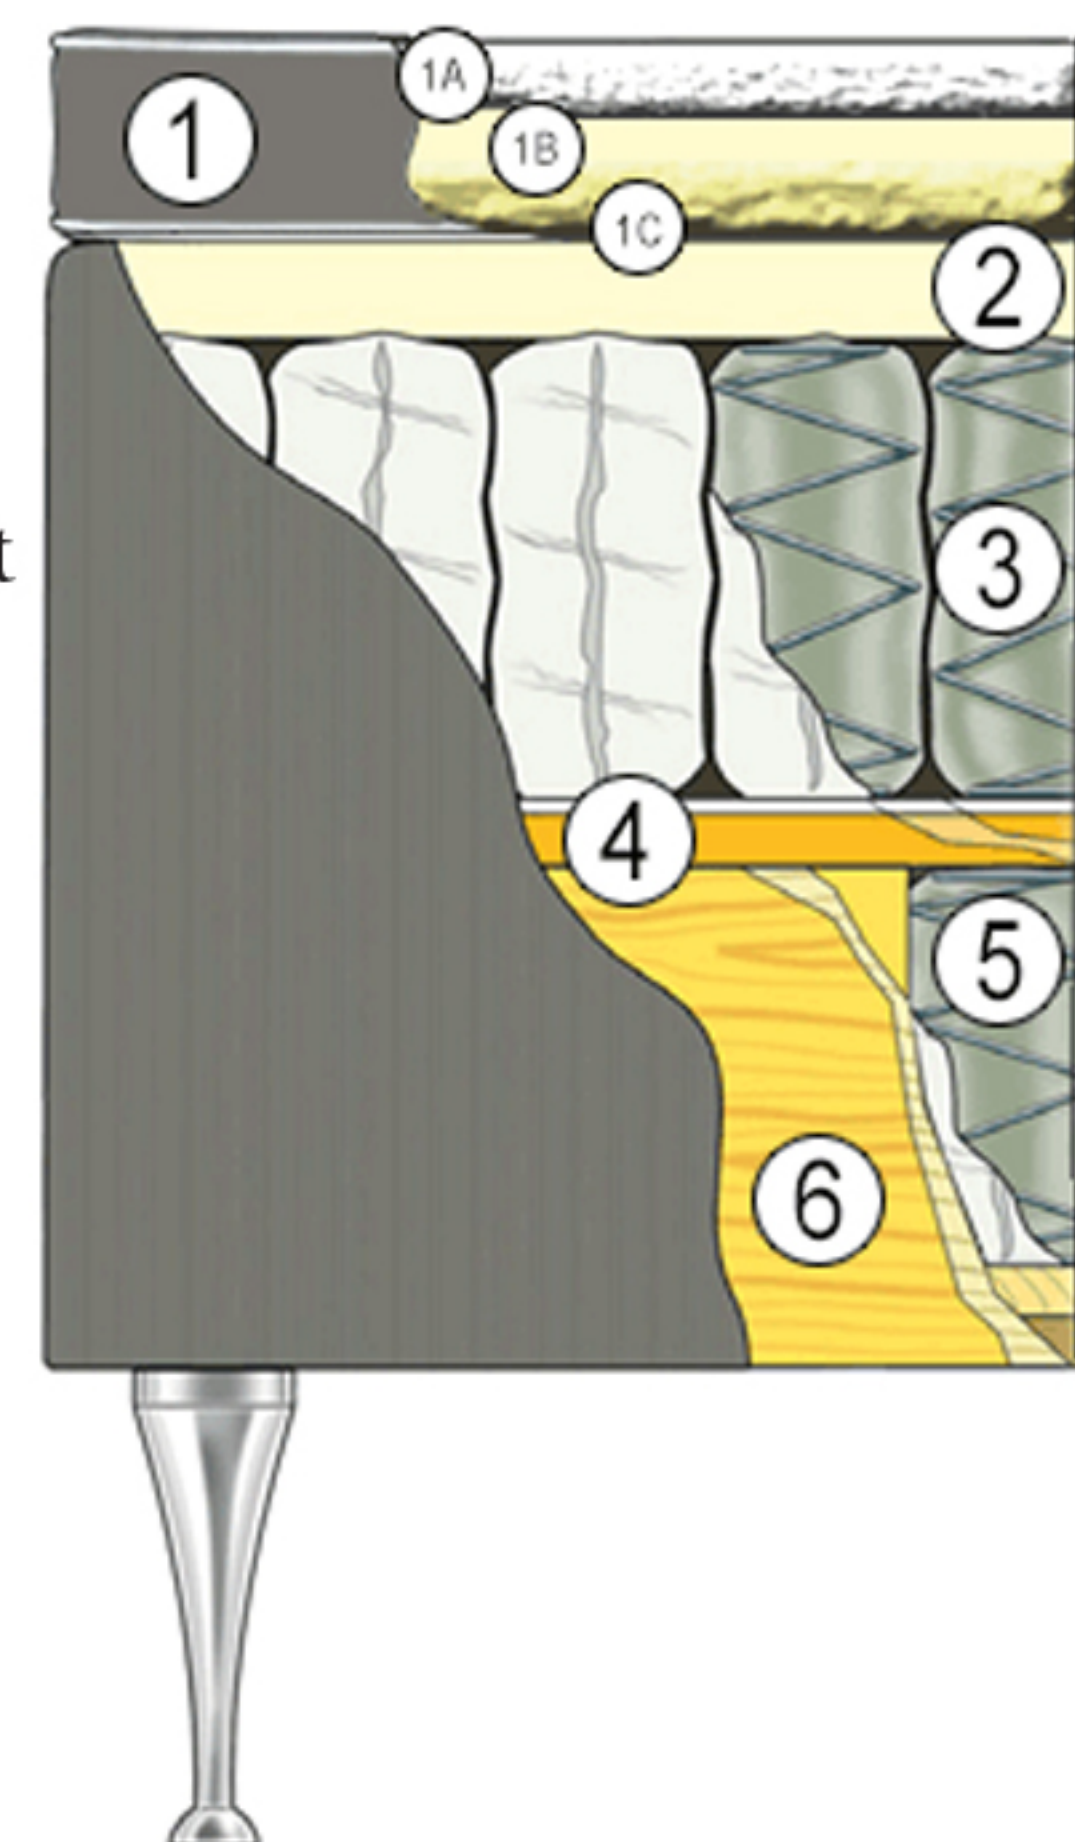

Our Exclusive top mattress, with its soft cottonfilled summer side and its certified New Zealand wool-filled winter side, completes the Malö to give you comfort excellence.
